

YANKEES BAT OUT VICTORY IN NINTH

New Yorkers and Champion Colts Run Neck and Neck Until Farewell Chapter.

JACK QUINN PITCHES

Former Richmond Twirler Lets His Old Team-Mates Down With Three Hits.

Although Jack Quinn, Richmond's premier pitcher of last season, was on their firing line, the New York Yankees found the task of corraling the champion Colts at Broad Street Park yesterday afternoon a somewhat difficult one. For eight rounds the running was neck and neck, with one count for each, and in spite of the raw wind that blew in from the northwest, the 1,200 fans were happy. But their joy was quickly dispelled, for in the farewell chapter the Yankees hummered the ball all over the lot and capped off the nineteenth consecutive victory for the big minor-pitcher. Score: Richmond, 1; New York, 5.

It was the old, old story of the Quinn victories—won in the ninth—and there is a suspicion that Jack owns a fat little white horse, upon examination would be found to be slightly worn. In this game the "god of things as they ought to be" rightly smiled on Quinn.

He pitched a good game, and the best the Colts could do with his shoats were two singles and one double. When the Champs finally lost out, the fans consoled themselves with the knowledge that it was a former champion who turned the trick.

Quinn breaks spell. Quinn is a favorite with the Richmond fans, and time and again the crowd wavered between loyalty to the home club and admiration for the minor. The pitcher deserved all of the vigorous applause accorded him, for he was responsible in more ways than one for the Yankees' victory. It was he who scored the first run for New York in the third, after hitting for two sacks, and he broke the spell in the ninth with the second run for the visitors. That one run proved to be enough, but with Elberfeld and Engle on the bases, Ward, who is filling the shoes of Hal Chase at first base, made victory certain by smashing the leather to the clubhouse for a home-run—the first of the season at this park.

Although the Yankees have been subjected to all kinds of fumigations and inspection and vaccinations within the last few days, the Yankees showed twenty of ginger, and they were hustling every minute. All of the usual business has failed to dampen the spirits of "Kid" Elberfeld. He still is the "Tabasco Kid" of old, and in the eighth round, when Umpire Mace called Austin's drive to right a foul, he rushed out on the diamond for the usual argument. "The Chief" Stallings was on the diamond immediately, and he rushed on the diamond and shoved the "Kid" back to the coaching line. Two men were on bases when Austin made the drive and, as the ball kicked off the line off the foul line, when it fell to the ground, the Yankees had a kick coming.

Player Runs Marathon. Another interesting feature of the afternoon's entertainment was a Marathon which one of the Yankees pulled off all by his lonesome. Austin, who is filling the shoes of Hal Chase at first base, pulled off the fifth or sixth circle the crowd being again applauding his efforts. This spurred him on to greater deeds, and he quickened his pace. One spectator advised him to challenge St. New York, and another, who probably had been holding the watch, called his time as 2:24.5. He liked for one more lap after that and then trotted back into the Yankees' camp.

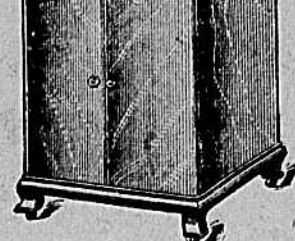

The showing made by the Colts against the Yankees was far better than that which they made against the Giants, but it must be remembered that the Yankees are not the Giants, and these particular Yankees never will be.

Smith was the only Colt who did much blundering. He dropped a couple of fly balls, the last one being a long drive to centre by Quinn in the ninth, and it cost one run. His injured foot is not entirely well, and he runs with a limp.

Jack Ashton did the flinging for the home team during the first five rounds, and he pitched good ball, the visitors piling up hits on him in only one inning. He pulled himself out of a couple of bad holes.

Harvey Muir, who was married Thursday, worked the last four innings, and he kept his hits scattered until the last inning. After Smith

Call at 103 East Broad St., Phone 313 or Write Us a Postal

Victor Victrola XVI at $200 Really Is.

Also, our regular line of Victor Talking Machines at $10 up.

Easy payments.

Walter D. Moses & Co.

103 E. Broad St., Richmond, Va.

Wholesale and Retail Victor Distributors.

dropped Quinn's fly and he had been sacrificed to third, Keeler hit a single, Elberfeld hit to Sandberg, forcing Keeler at second. Engle singled, and then Ward came forth with his homer. Ball flew out to Smith, and the Colts came in to make a vain effort to get the four runs back.

The locals' lone run came in the fourth. Kanzier singled and was sacrificed to second by Smith. With Jay playing off second, Blair threw to catch him, but Austin was not on the job, and while the ball was rolling to centre field, Kanzier raced to third. He scored a few seconds later when Blair let a wide one get by him. Sandberg then followed with a long double to centre, which Hemphill made a desperate effort to get, but Ison and Wright were easy outs.

Jimmy Ison made his initial appearance with the Colts at second this season, and played a fairly good game. He is still a trifle stiff, and has not yet found his batting eye.

The New York second team and the Colts play at Broad Street Park this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The tabulated score:

Richmond, A. B. R. H. O. A. E.

Lehr, 1b., 4 0 1 0 0 0

Lyne, 2b., 2 0 0 2 0 0

Kanzier, 1b., 4 1 1 1 0 0

Smith, cf., 2 0 0 2 0 0

Sandberg, 3b., 2 0 0 2 0 0

Ison, 2b., 4 0 0 2 2 1

Wright, 1b., 2 0 0 1 0 0

Ashton, p., 1 0 0 0 1 0

Muir, p., 1 0 0 0 1 0

Messitt, 1 0 0 0 1 0

Totals, 30 1 3 27 14

VIRGINIA WINS CLOSE GAME FROM PRINCETON

Second Victory for Carl Walker Over Tigers in Two Years.

WIN DESPITE MANY ERRORS

Yale Track Team Occupied Seats and Alternately Cheered Teams.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., April 9.—Virginia kept up her winning streak to-day by defeating Princeton, 4 to 3, before the largest crowd ever at a baseball game at the university.

The Yale track team occupied seats in the grand-stand and gave repeated yells for Virginia and Princeton.

The Tigers played an uphill game and gave the Southerners quite a scare in the closing inning.

In the eighth three errors by Dabney gave Princeton two runs. With one down in the ninth Reed soaked a line drive to deep left, good for two bags.

Dawson fanned. Connors, batting for White, nailed a corking single to deep left, sending in Reed. Dabney ended the agony by gathering in a foul from Cunningham's bat.

Walker's Second Victory. It was Carl Walker's second victory over the Tigers in two years. The clever southpaw won despite the many errors behind him. Up to the ninth inning he had allowed but two hits.

He did not issue a single pass, although a cold wind blew across the diamond, kicking up clouds of dust. Virginia was the first to score. Hume opened the fifth with a three-bagger and tallied on Warwick's fumble.

In the next inning Pickford walked, but was caught at the plate while trying to score on Dabney's triple. Captain Hoff came to the rescue with a three-bagger, sending in Dabney and counting himself a moment later on Reed's error. The winning run came in the seventh. Walker drew a pass, went around a wild throw across the plate to centre, and tallied on Warwick's fumble.

Dawson nailed four runners at second and Dillon covered second for the single to centre, and tallied on Warwick's fumble.

Dawson's started out for Princeton lacked control and after being touched up for two triples in the sixth retired in favor of White, who also found it difficult to locate the plate. With the exception of Warwick the Tigers put up a star fielding game.

Dawson nailed four runners at second and Dillon covered second for the single to centre, and tallied on Warwick's fumble.

Dawson's started out for Princeton lacked control and after being touched up for two triples in the sixth retired in favor of White, who also found it difficult to locate the plate. With the exception of Warwick the Tigers put up a star fielding game.

Dawson's started out for Princeton lacked control and after being touched up for two triples in the sixth retired in favor of White, who also found it difficult to locate the plate. With the exception of Warwick the Tigers put up a star fielding game.

Dawson's started out for Princeton lacked control and after being touched up for two triples in the sixth retired in favor of White, who also found it difficult to locate the plate. With the exception of Warwick the Tigers put up a star fielding game.

Dawson's started out for Princeton lacked control and after being touched up for two triples in the sixth retired in favor of White, who also found it difficult to locate the plate. With the exception of Warwick the Tigers put up a star fielding game.

Dawson's started out for Princeton lacked control and after being touched up for two triples in the sixth retired in favor of White, who also found it difficult to locate the plate. With the exception of Warwick the Tigers put up a star fielding game.

Dawson's started out for Princeton lacked control and after being touched up for two triples in the sixth retired in favor of White, who also found it difficult to locate the plate. With the exception of Warwick the Tigers put up a star fielding game.

Dawson's started out for Princeton lacked control and after being touched up for two triples in the sixth retired in favor of White, who also found it difficult to locate the plate. With the exception of Warwick the Tigers put up a star fielding game.

Dawson's started out for Princeton lacked control and after being touched up for two triples in the sixth retired in favor of White, who also found it difficult to locate the plate. With the exception of Warwick the Tigers put up a star fielding game.

Dawson's started out for Princeton lacked control and after being touched up for two triples in the sixth retired in favor of White, who also found it difficult to locate the plate. With the exception of Warwick the Tigers put up a star fielding game.

Dawson's started out for Princeton lacked control and after being touched up for two triples in the sixth retired in favor of White, who also found it difficult to locate the plate. With the exception of Warwick the Tigers put up a star fielding game.

Dawson's started out for Princeton lacked control and after being touched up for two triples in the sixth retired in favor of White, who also found it difficult to locate the plate. With the exception of Warwick the Tigers put up a star fielding game.

Victor-Victrola XVI

A new style Victor $200

Caruso listening to his own voice on the Victrola

The Victor-Victrola brings to you all the beautiful Victor music and entertainment, played in the richest sweetest, most mellow tone ever heard—as pure and true as life itself.

Victor-Victrola XVI, mahogany and quartered oak, $200; circassian walnut, $250.

See and hear the Victor-Victrola at the nearest Victor dealer's.

Write to us for complete catalogues of the 10,000 records from $10 up and of 3000 Victor Records.

Victor Talking Machine Co., Camden, N. J.

To get best results, use only Victor Needles on Victor Records. A complete list of new Victor Records for April will be mailed in the April number of Century, Current Literature, Everybody's, McClure's, Munsey's, Scribner's, and May Cosmopolitan.

SPIDERS LOSE TO PREACHERS

Union Seminary Team Lands on Clark in Three Innings and Wins 6-to-1 Victory.

In the first game played on its home grounds since the successful tour through North Carolina last week, the Richmond College baseball team was given a severe drubbing yesterday afternoon by the nine of the Union Theological Seminary, the final figures being 6 to 1.

After the second inning the Spiders were never in the running. They made their lone rally in that chapter on a single, a sacrifice and an error.

Landing on Clark for two singles and a three-bagger and another had been given a life on a bungle, the preachers piled up four counts in the second.

After that Clark settled down and there was no more scoring until the eighth. The "sky pilot" added one in that round and one in the last.

The features of the game were the hitting of Bedinger and Gammon and the playing of Thompson and Bedinger of the Seminary.

Score by innings: R. H. E. College, 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 6 4 Seminary, 6 0 0 0 0 1 1 0 0 2

At Charlottesville, Va., April 9.—The Union Seminary team defeated the Richmond College baseball team to-day by the score of 12 to 3.

The Doves hit Vernuelle hard in five innings, but were unable to locate Griffin, an amateur trout, sufficient for a run in four innings. The work of Beck at centre for Boston was sensational. He certainly robbed the locals of more runs than they made. Eight of the Shoemakers' hits were made in the last three innings. The weather was cold and a high wind prevailed.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Lynchburg, 0 0 0 0 0 1 2 0 1 1 Boston, 12 3 0 0 0 0 0 0 12 13 1

Batteries—Vernuelle, Griffin and Caul; Tuckey and Graham.

At Athens, Ga.—Georgia, 3; Auburn, 2. At New Orleans—Cleveland (Americans), 2; New Orleans (Southerns), 1.

At Columbia—Columbia (South Atlantic League), 5; Greenville Carolina Association, 1.

At Nashville—Brooklyn (National), 12; Nashville (Southern), 1.

At Lynchburg, Va.—Boston (National), 12; Lynchburg (Virginia League), 3.

At Lexington, Va.—Washington and Lee University, 1; Roanoke College, 0.

At Montgomery, Ala.—Columbia, Ga. (South Atlantic), 5; Montgomery (Southern), 7.

At Charlottesville, Va.—University of Virginia, 4; Princeton, 2.

At Americus, Ga.—Macon (South Atlantic), 15; Americus (State), 0.

At Chattanooga—Atlanta (Southern), 7; Chattanooga (South Atlantic), 3.

At Anderson, S. C.—Charleston (South Atlantic), 12; Anderson (Carolina), 1.

At Blacksburg, Va.—V. P. L.; St. John's College, 9.

At Norfolk, Va.—Elmira, 8; Portsmouth, 6.

NEW YORK PLAYERS GET CLEAN BILL OF HEALTH

After Examining All of the Men and Vaccinating Seven, Dr. Levy Permits First Team to Play Here. Can Enter Washington.

After subjecting every man in the squad to a rigid and thorough examination and vaccinating seven of them—six players and one newspaper correspondent—Dr. E. C. Levy, the city health officer, Dr. Allen W. Freeman, the State Bacteriologist, and Dr. Joseph Goldberger, of the United States Marine Hospital Service, yesterday morning gave the members of the first team of the New York American League baseball club and the accompanying trainers and newspaper men a clean bill of health. The team was permitted to play the Richmond baseball team yesterday afternoon and to leave this city last night for New York.

Can Open Season Monday. On completion of the examination Dr. Goldberger returned to Washington, and according to an Associated Press dispatch from that city last night, the doctors there have agreed to permit the New York team to enter that city to open the American League season with the Washington team Monday afternoon.

When Manager George Stallings and his men arrived at the Main Street Station at 8 o'clock yesterday morning from Lynchburg, they were met by Dr. Levy and Dr. Freeman. After a conference with the manager, the physicians permitted the ball players to go to Murphy's Hotel, and the examination was made a short while after the arrival of the men here.

Those Who Were Vaccinated. The men vaccinated were W. J. McReth, correspondent of the New York American; Charles Hemphill, Second Baseman Neal Ball, Third Baseman Norman Elberfeld, Pitcher George McCook and Trainer for V. P. L. Battorie. The other men had been vaccinated prior to their arrival in Richmond.

Manager Stallings and his players submitted to the inspection with good grace, but all were relieved when the examination was over. The manager told the doctors that none of the players had been with Hal Chase, who is ill with smallpox in Augusta, Ga., since Tuesday last.

The members of the first team, with the newspaper correspondents and the manager, left at 8:20 o'clock last night for New York, where they will play an exhibition game to-day. To-morrow they play in Jersey City, N. J., and Jack Burke, the other man had been vaccinated prior to their arrival in Richmond.

Yankees Here Until Monday. The members of the second team, or Yankigans, as they are called, arrived here from Danville at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, and will remain here until Monday evening, playing the Richmond team to-day and Monday. They will join the first team in Washington Monday night.

An Associated Press dispatch last night from Augusta, Ga., says that Hal Chase's smallpox is responding freely to the treatment of the doctors at the contagion hospital, where he is being detained. The physicians believe that he can be discharged from the hospital about April 15, but Chase says he will not join his team before May 10.

Mrs. Chase is expected to arrive in Augusta to-day, but she will not be permitted to see her husband, and can communicate with him only by telephone.

Real Estate for Sale. Boulevard Lots ON HIGH GROUND, FACING FAIR GROUNDS. 140 FEET DEEP ALLEY 20 FEET DEEP. $10 a Foot. McVIE & CO., 1112 Main Street.

Amusements. The Wednesday Club 16th Annual Music Festival, CITY AUDITORIUM, April 14th and 15th.

Three Grand Concerts THE WEDNESDAY CLUB CHORUS, Assisted by THE CHILDREN'S CHORUS, (1,000 Voices) THE NEW YORK SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA, Walter Damrosch, Conductor, and Mme. Corlone Rider-Kelsey, Soprano.

Miss Nevada Van Der Veer, Contralto. Reed Miller, Tenor, and Gustaf Holmquist, Bass.

Seats on sale to the public beginning FRIDAY, APRIL 10th, at the Wednesday Club Office, 213 East Broad Street.

Prices: 25c, 50c, $1.00 and $2.00. ACADEMY, WEDNESDAY. ILLUSTRATED "TRAVEL TALKS," Maltine, a 10 o'clock.

From the Cape to Cairo, Night at 8:20. From Windsor Castle to Whitechapel. PRICES: Matinee, 25c, 50c, 75c; Night, 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00.

BIJOU—All Week Matinee, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, Manager McKee Presents George Ade's Comedy, With Musical Interruptions.

JUST OUT OF COLLEGE Theatre Closed on Good Friday.

New York Americans (Stallings' Yankees) vs. Richmond FRIDAY, SATURDAY AND MONDAY, APRIL 9, 10 AND 12. GAME CALLED 4 P. M. Admission, 25c. Grandstand, 15c.

LUBIN THEATRE—At White's great dancing hall, Hughes and Cole, comedians, and other great vaudeville and picture features. Continuous, 3 to 11 P. M. No intermission. Admission, 10 cents. Ladies and children at matinee, 5 cents.

Races Called Off. The bicycle race scheduled at the Valedictory track here to-day was called off on account of cold weather.

Victory in the above mentioned bout has been given. I hereby certify that a bond required in the above mentioned bout has been given.

Teste—C. O. SAVILLE, Clerk.

DATES FOR RICHMOND RACE MEET NEXT MONTH

Huntsman Committee of National Steeplechase and Hunt Association Assigns May 15, 17 and 18 to Virginia Racing Association—Famous Horses Will Be Entered.

James W. Graves, president of the new Virginia Horse Show and Racing Association, of Richmond, received notice yesterday morning that the huntsman committee of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association, has fixed May 15, 17 and 18 as the dates for the first annual spring meet of the association. Westmoreland Davis, of Leesburg, chairman of the huntsman committee, is delegated to represent the national association at the meet.

With the dates finally settled, Mr. Graves and his associates are going ahead rapidly with the arrangements for the meet, and they plan to make it the largest and most ever held in Richmond. Already the owners of horses that were entered in the Warrenton and Pimlico races have promised to send strings of racers here.

Many Hunters Entered. While the program for the three days has not yet been completed, the association has decided to have a number of steeplechase as well as the usual flat races. Some of the steeplechase events will be for qualified hunters only. An unusually large number of hunters already have been entered, and these races promise to be a particular feature of the meet. One or two military races, for horses owned and ridden by army and navy officers, also will be held at the Virginia State Fair Grounds, and the work of putting the track and chase courses into first-class condition will begin this month.

Mr. Graves yesterday announced the following officials for the meet: Judges—Westmoreland Davis, Leesburg; James K. Maddox, Warrenton; Henry Fairfax, Loudoun county, and A. J. Potts, Richmond.

Clerk of the Course, John W. McComb. W. J. Carter ("Broad Rock"), E. D. Harris and James W. Graves compose the racing committee, and Mark L. Lloyd is the racing secretary.

The new racing association was organized here a month ago by Mr. Graves, Mr. Carter, Mr. McComb and Mr. Harris. Among the membership are practically all of the horsemen of this city and vicinity.

The prime object of the association is to conduct spring race meets in Richmond, but the officials also propose to make Richmond a great wintering centre for race-horses. It is proposed to quarter the horses at the State Fair Grounds, there now being accommodations for about 350 there. The climate here is regarded as the best anywhere. The horses can be worked out every day on the regular track or on the cinder track near the grounds.

CHANGE IN SCHEDULE, R. F. & P. Commencing Monday, April 13, a commutation train will leave Ashland, Va., at 4:50 P. M. week days, instead of 4:35 P. M., arriving Elba Station 5:30 P. M. Proportional changes from intermediate stations.

W. F. TAYLOR, Traffic Manager.